

Flower Festival at Holy Trinity & St Barnabas Church, Paisley

Friday June 16 to Sunday June 18, 2017

Holy Trinity & St Barnabas Church, Paisley will be holding a Flower Festival to help celebrate their 200th Anniversary as a congregation of the Diocese of Glasgow and Galloway from Friday June 16 to Sunday June 18, 2017.

The Grand Opening will be by the Lord Lieutenant of Renfrewshire on Friday June 16 at 10 am. Doors will be open on Friday June 16 from 10 am to 4:00 pm; Saturday June 17 from 10 am to 4:00 pm and on Sunday June 18 from 12:30 pm to 3:30 pm. Admission is £5 per person and includes the Tea Room.

Trinity Chapel was first established in November 1817 by the Revd William Wade (later Dean of the Diocese of Glasgow and Galloway) very close to the current church's location. Trinity was the first Scottish Episcopal Church congregation established in the west of Scotland after the easing of the Penal Laws in 1792, and the re-establishment of the Episcopal Church in Paisley since 1688. The current Church was built in 1833 and became an amalgamated congregation of Holy Trinity & St Barnabas Churches in 2004.
